Invitation

The world is changing with breathtaking speed. Technologies, markets and consumer's wishes generate an ever new dynamic. Forecasts for the future? Difficult! That's why we say: Today is the new tomorrow!

Because future is what we make of it now.

You, our customers and partners are clearly in the focus again. Your goals and successes determine our actions.

That's why in 2018 we'll do what you appreciate about ILAG: present new market-driven coating systems, meticulously extend success products, provide even better advice and services.

Always with the aspiration to secure and expand your success on the market in the long term.

What exactly are we going to do? Just let us talk about it in a personal conversation. From the 10th to the 13th of March we will be available for you at The International Home + Housewares Show 2018 in Chicago. With a new booth, with all contact persons and with a lot of time for your questions, suggestions and wishes.
